

COLLEGE OF MARIN

Program Requirements:

- 18 years or older
- Proof of employment eligibility
- High school diploma or GED
- English proficiency
- Interest in a career in or related to fire service
- COVID vaccination required

Program Benefits:

- FREE courses at College of Marin - including materials
  - Emergency Medical Response (EMR)
  - Emergency Medical Technician Basics (EMT)
  - Other pre-requisites for Fire Academy
- Mentorship and unique opportunities to visit fire stations and learn from active fire fighters
- Career pathway support:
  - Assistance and support in applying for and completing applications to fire academy or paramedic programs
  - Assistance and support in applying for full time jobs within the fire and EMS services
- Optional full/part-time job opportunities that help you to prepare for a career in fire service

Apply today!

firefoundry.org

What is FIRE Foundry? A workforce development program focused on supporting underrepresented groups such as women and people of color to pursue careers in fire service.

Questions? Reach out to mchoudhury@marincounty.org